DETAILED ACTION

1. The submission of the amendment filed on 12/26/00 is acknowledged. At this point, claims 1 and 6-10 are amended, claims 11-14 are added. Thus, claims 1-14 are pending in the instant application.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "Velcro strip" recited in claims 13 and 14 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US/5,752,857 to Knights.

Art Unit: 2835

Regarding claim 1, Knights disclosed, (Fig. 7), a PC accessory unit for use with a desktop personal computer assembly including a PC keyboard (10), the PC accessory unit comprising: a body structure (180) incorporating electronic circuitry (30) for operation with a PC; and a connecting assembly (84A, 92) coupled to the body structure for attaching body structure externally to the PC keyboard (10).

Regarding claim 6, Knights disclosed, (Fig. 7), a PC accessory unit for use with a PC keyboard (10), comprising: a body structure (180) incorporating electronic circuitry (30) for operation with a PC; a connecting assembly (84A, 92) coupled to the body structure (180); wherein the connecting assembly is coupled externally to the keyboard.

Regarding claim 7, Knights disclosed that the body structure is a Smartcard utility kit, (column 2, lines 1+).

Regarding claims 2 and 8, Knights disclosed a clip (two prongs positioned between members 84A).

Regarding claim 3, Knights disclosed that said clip has two prongs for insertion into openings in a PC keyboard, (Fig. 7).

Regarding claim 4, Knights disclosed that the PC accessory unit is a Smartcard utility kit, (column 2, lines 1+).

Regarding claim 5, Knights disclosed that the clip of the Smartcard utility kit is inserted into keyboard openings, (Fig. 7).

5. Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US/4,749,364 to Arney et al., (Arney).

Art Unit: 2835

Regarding claims 9, Arney disclosed, (Fig. 1) a PC accessory unit comprising: a body structure (105) incorporating electronic circuitry for operation with a PC; a connecting assembly (107), including a clip (109) coupled to the body structure; and a keyboard (101) having a backside surface facing away from a user, the keyboard configured to receive the connecting assembly and clip at the backside of the keyboard to dress the PC accessory unit to the backside of the keyboard, the keyboard being a stand alone component.

Regarding claim 10, Arney disclosed, (Fig. 1) a PC accessory unit, comprising: a body structure (105) for holding a device (111) for use with a PC; a connecting assembly (107), including a clip (109) coupled to the body structure; and a keyboard (101) having a backside surface facing away from a user, the keyboard configured to receive the connecting assembly and clip at the backside of the keyboard to dress the PC accessory unit to the backside of the keyboard, the keyboard being a stand alone component.

Regarding claim 11, Arney disclosed that said keyboard (101) has a plurality of openings (103) for receiving the clip (109).

Regarding claim 12, Arney disclosed that at least one opening (103) of the plurality of openings is located at a backside of the keyboard (101), the backside being a surface facing away from the user, (Fig. 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2835

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Knights.

Knights disclosed all of the claims limitations as apply to claims 1 and 6 respectively, but did not disclose that said connecting assembly includes a Velcro strip.

The Official Notice is taken that Velcro strips have been notoriously known to a person of ordinary skill in the computer art at the time the invention was made as a widely used means for joining separate components of the device together, therefore it would have been an obvious matter of the design choice to use said Velcro strips for the connecting assembly of Knights in order to simplify the connecting assembly.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
